I.) Guest Presenters: Sojourner Family Peace Center

- Carmen Pitre (President and CEO of Sojourner Family Peace Center) and Kent Lovern (Deputy District Attorney with the Milwaukee County District Attorney’s Office) gave a presentation titled “Coordinated Services for Families,” which provided an in-depth, historical perspective of how the newly opened Family Peace Center came to fruition. The presentation, and Family Peace Center itself, emphasized the importance of collaborative partnerships and coordinated services to improve service delivery to families in need. Many partners are co-located within the facility, which allows for ease of access to resources without having to travel to multiple locations. Presentation materials available upon request.

II.) Kit Murphy McNally

- Kit Murphy McNally made the announcement that this is her final CJC Executive Committee meeting. Kit thanked the group and recommended a representative to replace her “Community Member” position on the Executive Committee. The committee was encouraged to make any additional recommendations and the group will vote at a future meeting. Kit also noted that she has also vacated her co-chair positions on the Community Engagement and Programs & Interventions Committees. Previously, it was a practice that each committee have a member of the Executive Committee participate as a co-chair. The group will need to decide if this will continue as practice, or if a designee shall be assigned as co-chair.

III.) Other Business/Updates from Members

- Mallory O’Brien noted that the Data Committee continues to work on Mayor Barrett’s request regarding auto theft and carjacking data.
